Dear Parents and Carers,

HARVEST COLLECTION APPEAL AND ASSEMBLY

THURSDAY 17th OCTOBER 2:30pm

During October we are asking our families to support our Harvest Appeal, which helps the elderly and those less fortunate than ourselves in our parish community. If you are able, please can you support the parish community by providing food donations to people in need. This year, we are asking for your kind contributions for the Kidsgrove foodbank. Examples of donations could be:

- tins (meat, fish, soup, fruit, beans, tomatoes, vegetables, puddings, custard etc.)
- biscuits
- packet foods
- instant mash potatoes
- jars (sauces etc.)
- cereals
- coffee and tea bags
- pasta and rice
- any long-life product/ non-perishable items

If you prefer to send in a donation of money, please pop any donations into an envelope labelled harvest appeal.

If you feel able to contribute to this appeal, please send your donations/ food parcel in to your child's class teacher by Wednesday 16th October. All items received will be part of our Harvest display in the hall and then collected and taken to the local food bank in Kidsgrove, supporting local people. Thank you sincerely in advance for your support for this appeal.

We will also be holding a Harvest celebration assembly on Thursday 17th October at 2.30pm.

Yours sincerely

Mrs H Rigby
Principal
