Friday 19th November 2021

Dear Parent(s) and Guardian(s),

Christmas Fayre Friday 26th November (3pm start) Arrangements

We are planning (fingers crossed!) to hold our Christmas Fayre next Friday after school on the playground at The Avenue site. If there are some elements of the Fayre inside (due to inclement weather) we will ask families to be patient to allow restricted numbers in the hall or the identified classroom. We are still asking parents to be mindful social distancing and encourage the use of face coverings. Please come along and support the PTFA.

Staff will be walking the children at KS2 down to The Avenue, leaving school in the afternoon.

Please pick up EYFS/KS1 children from the following classrooms

Lower site (EYFS/KS1) will be released from their normal pick up points between 3.00pm – 3.10pm.

Please pick up KS2 children from the following classrooms at 3.20pm

Y3 children will be released from Nursery Class entrance.

Y4 children will be released from Reception Class entrance.

Y5 and Y6 children will be released from the Office entrance. If your child is in Year 6 and they will be walking home, please see below.

For the duration of our Christmas Fayre our Care Club will be based in Y1 and parents will be able to collect children from there using the normal method. If you would like to send them any money in to spend at the Fayre please see Mrs Walklet.

KS2 Children that walk home

If your child usually walks home from school can you please complete the slip below to give permission for them to walk from The Avenue site (Y6 only).

Thank you for your continued support and I hope to see as many of you as possible next Friday.

Yours sincerely

Mrs H Rigby
Principal

I give permission for my son/daughter* named below to walk home from The Avenue site on Friday 26th November.
